SPRING SEMESTER OF SCHOOL BEGINS

INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT THE OPENING DAY OF THE TERM

Merrily the school bells chortled forth their mandate to return to work this morning. The order was obeyed with varying degrees of dalliance and promptitude, for the two weeks of vacation had passed all too quickly. The teachers, none of whom were on the absentee list, appeared refreshed by their fortnight of respite, the greater number having spent the time at the state institute held at Reno.

Prof. Smith, the superintendent, when seen by the Bonanza, had not had time to check up enrollment, but he reported a goodly number of new students, with some empty desks that had been filled before the vacation. He estimated, however, an increased attendance. There were, it will be remembered, 543 students in all the grades when the holiday vacation was declared.

There is but one position vacated, that of Mrs. Earl McKee, who is married and is forever through with instructing other people's children in the arts of music and drawing. Her position will not be filled this term in the interest of economy, but the salary will be applied to that of the new teacher of the receiving class, who will begin her duties about January 25.

The enrollment this morning in the various grades was as follows: Kindergarten, 69; grade 1, 58; grades 1 and 2 (overflow), 32; grade 2, 47; grade 3, 42; grades 3 and 5 (overflow), 28; grade 4, 45; grade 5, 36; grade 6, 38; grades 6 and 7 (overflow), 28; grade 4, 45; grade 5, 36; high school, 64; total, 538, virtually the same for the first day as before Christmas, with an additional attendance expected tomorrow.

PRIZE MONEY FOR BRITISH SEAMEN

NEARLY $100,000 TO BE SHARED BY MEN ON CONQUERING WARSHIPS

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The men of the warships which captured the German barques Goldbek and Perkeo will have about £19,000, or $95,000, to divide among them from the sale of these vessels, which were recently put up at auction. The Perkeo went to a Norwegian bidder at $61,000. The Goldbek passed to another Norwegian firm at the price of $64,500. The sale of the Perkeo aroused interest because she is the largest sailing vessel afloat. She can load nearly 6,000 tons of cargo. She was launched under a British registry on the Clyde in 1901, and was first known as the Brilliant. Shortly before the outbreak of the war she was sold to the "P" line of clippers of Hamburg, and Captain Nissen was placed in command.

Captain Nissen was skipper of the famous five-masted barque Preussen, which was wrecked in a storm off Dover three years ago, when the officers and crew aided with such gallantry that the Kaiser sent a congratulatory telegram.

The Perkeo was dispatched by her new German owners to New York on her first trip, but was intercepted off Dover on August 5 by H. M. S. Zulu. Captain Nissen, in sight of the spot where his old charge, the Preussen, left her bones, endeavored to escape by hoisting the Union Jack. But he ran up the true colors when a shot pierced her foresail.

"SAFETY FIRST" IS RAILROAD'S POLICY

ANOTHER WARNING TO NON-PASSENGERS NOT TO GET ON TRAINS

The following letter, addressed to the editor of the Bonanza by the traffic manager and superintendent of the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad is self-explanatory:

"It is with much pleasure that I note the prominence you have given in the Bonanza of December 30, 1914, the 'narrow escape' of two ladies in alighting from our train 23 while moving out of Tonopah station. By your action in this matter you have warned the Tonopah public of the danger in boarding passenger trains at stations when they are not legitimate passengers. We have in the past taken every precaution to prevent such accidents as were narrowly averted in this case. I fear some of our Tonopah friends have unfortunately abused the privilege of boarding our trains for the purpose of bidding farewell to their friends and remaining there until trains were in motion. While under the law we disclaim any responsibility whatever, we are by no means indifferent to the value of human life, and instructions have been issued, effective at once, that hereafter no one will be allowed to enter our passenger trains at any of our stations unless they possess the necessary transportation.

"You can render the Tonopah public an additional service and at the same time be of considerable assistance to this company by mentioning in your valuable paper that the carelessness exhibited at our Tonopah station upon the arrival and departure of our trains by the people who go to the depot—some through curiosity and some on business—by the hack and taxi drivers, the baggage solicitors and passenger runners—will some day result in a serious accident unless they take warning. We have done everything, we possibly can except to fence in the track and thereby prevent the public from any approach whatever to our trains; we have repeatedly cautioned the hack, bus and taxi drivers to keep back of a certain chalkline, but they disregard our instructions and requests. It is not our desire to in any way inconvenience our good friends, the Tonopah public, but unless better judgment is exhibited on the part of these people we will be forced to take such action as will prevent serious accidents.

"Yours very truly,
"W. D. FORSTER"

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Hearst-Selig Pictorial with many scenes of the present war, Germans mass at Brussels, British patriots give ambulances to army in field, also many other current events. A George Ade comedy, "The Fable of Aggie and the Aggravated Attacks;" this picture is, as usual, a funny real-to-life comedy, something that happens every day and has been written by America's greatest humorist. "Within an Ace," a two-reel Vitagraph featuring Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison. With a cruel determination, a scheming villain deliberately kills his victim and claims his estate. He so covers up his crime it never would have been discovered had not the dead man's niece come to take possession of her uncle's property, as his rightful heir. How she does, aided by the man who loves her, and how the murderer was apprehended and justice prevailed makes a thrilling and excitingly interesting picture. The Butler theater, where this picture will be displayed tonight, has made no mistake in its selection as an entertaining and attractive feature of their program.

Tomorrow, "They Called It Baby Bio," comedy.—Adv.
